

Building Notice (England) Notes and Checklist

	Is a building Notice suitable?	Regulation	Included or not applicable?
1	Is the building work etc., in relation to higher-risk building work? A building notice given to the local authority is not appropriate in these circumstances. Applications for building work to higher-risk buildings can be made here .	2B
2	Is the building work in relation to a building to which the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005 applies or will apply after the completion of the building work? A building notice given to the local authority is not appropriate in these circumstances.	12(3)
3	Is the building work the erection of a building fronting onto a private street? For this question, “fronting” has the meaning given in section 203(3) of the Highways Act 1980 ; and “private street” has the meaning given in section 203(2) of the Highways Act 1980 . A building notice given to the local authority is not appropriate in these circumstances.	12(4)
4	Is the building work, work to which paragraph H4 of Schedule 1 imposes a requirement? A building notice given to the local authority is not appropriate in these circumstances.	12(5)
5	Is there any building work involved to which Part P of Schedule 1 imposes a requirement and this work does not consist of: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • the installation of a new circuit • the replacement of a consumer unit or • any addition or alteration to existing circuits in a special location? Building work to which Part P of Schedule 1 imposes a requirement and does not consist of the above does not require a building notice (also refer to Schedule 4). Note also, for work that does consist of the above, this work can be carried out by a competent person described in Column 2 of Schedule 3 .	12(6A)
6	Has any part of the work described in an initial notice been carried out and the initial notice has ceased to be in force? If so, Regulation 19 of the Building (Approved Inspectors etc) Regulations 2010 (local authority powers in relation to partly completed work) applies. Compliance should be with the requirements of that regulation and a building notice is not appropriate.	12(7)

Building Notice (England) Notes and Checklist

If the response to all the questions above is 'no' then the giving of a building notice is possible for the proposed work. Where the response is 'yes' for row 1, an application should be made to the Building Safety Regulator. Where the response is 'yes' to rows 2, 3 or 4, an application for building control approval with full plans should be made to the local authority. Where the response is 'yes' to row 5, a building notice is not necessary for the work. For work in relation to row 6, please contact the local authority team for your area.
