Runnymede Borough Council has 41 members, three for each of the 13 wards and two for Englefield Green East, elected to represent the public. One third of the Council seats are up for re-election on the first Thursday in May, three years out of four. The fourth year is when Surrey County Council elections are held. Councillors undertake official duties in their own time and receive a small allowance, mainly to cover expenses.

All 41 councillors meet seven times each year. They approve the budget, level of Council Tax, consider a variety of key policy issues and discuss local matters of concern and governance.
